

Reaching UP

United Presbyterian Church

It's that time of year again. If you can pay your per-capita, please do so. The amount for 2014 is $29.33 per member.

Liturgical Colors

Several Sundays ago I noticed that the pulpit had a white cloth. I wondered why so I asked a couple of people who told me the color was determined by the Presbyterian calendar and that these were called "Liturgical Colors."

While many of you may know all of this, as a new Presbyterian, I had to explore more. This is what I found. The Presbyterian Church USA website provided my answers: <http://www.pcusa.org/resource/2014-liturgical-colors/>

I also appreciated the Presbyterian Mission FAQ: <http://www.presbyterianmission.org/ministries/worship/faq-signssymbols/>

The FAQ gave a brief overview of the colors used in the calendar but also of the many other symbols used, including the clerical garments.

- ◆ Advent: purple or blue
- ◆ Christmas (12 days) to Epiphany (Jan. 6): white and gold
- ◆ Ordinary Time (Jan. 7 through the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday): green, with the exception of Baptism of the Lord and Transfiguration of the Lord, both white
- ◆ Ash Wednesday through the first five weeks of Lent: purple
- ◆ Palm / Passion Sunday: red and/or purple
- ◆ Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week: purple
- ◆ Maundy Thursday: purple (until the church is stripped bare)
- ◆ Good Friday: no color; church remains stripped bare
- ◆ Easter Season (including Ascension of the Lord): white and gold
- ◆ Day of Pentecost: red

The calendar is online also at: http://www.pcusa.org/site\_media/media/uploads/planningcalendar/pdfs/2014liturgical.pdf

Many other resources are available from the sites. Please remember there are books at the UPC library to help when you are researching, also feel free to ask fellow members.

Letter from the Pastor

Monday when I was famished, I ate an orange and enjoyed a strawberry yogurt. Yesterday for lunch, Allen and I ordered out from a local fast food establishment. Last night, Linda and I enjoyed the Wednesday special at the Bakehouse. When we're hungry, we make sure to take care of those needs without much delay. This process happens daily, in fact, several times a day. Breakfast, lunch and dinner, become critical as do frequent refreshment breaks along the way. Rarely would any day pass, in which we might ignore the signs and symptoms that we're hungry. Before long, our rumbling stomachs or our nagging headaches demand our attention!

What response do we make to our spiritual hunger? How aware are we of our own spiritual needs, which can often be as pronounced as our physical needs?

Recently Alejandra Haddad, CRE, led our Lenten devotional, in which she observed, "There is a hunger about in our time, haunting lives and hearts. There is something brewing within people's hearts and souls . . . a hunger that needs to be fed."

Spiritual hunger is often not as easily recognized as physical hunger, but can be/become just as pronounced.

-- Have you ever noticed a nagging sense of worry or anxiety that something, somewhere just isn't right?

-- Do you spend countless moments wishing, hoping that someone might call or that someone/anyone might notice you in some way?

Mother Teresa, who encountered the worst poverty on the planet, once said, "The most terrible poverty is loneliness, and the feeling of being unloved." Loneliness indicates a spiritual hunger that touches us at the core of our souls.

Why is it so difficult to recognize the above needs as spiritual needs, and as important to address as our physical needs? Why would we never skip a day eating, but may spend long periods without ingesting spiritual nourishment?

We often eat meals without thinking about what we are chewing. We eat in the car or while watching TV. We sit down for a five-course meal or grab a sandwich on the fly. Spiritual nourishment involves our mind, our heart, our eyes and ears, our very souls. It is something to which we must give our attention and our intention.

In other words, we must attend to what we are reading or hearing and we must be intentional in seeking out the spiritual food that speaks to us, that leads us away from the noise of life, and to the nourishment of our souls. Since we regularly take meal breaks, why not incorporate spirit breaks in which we tune out of our phones and the internet, to spend a moment – listening, praying, reading a scripture or devotional thought? To create such a space would be instrumental in allowing God to feed our souls as regularly as we feed our bodies.

Another reason that we may spend long periods without ingesting spiritual nourishment is because we think we're too busy to stop – to rest and reflect on what God is saying to us. Just stop and listen. Stop talking. Stop worrying. Stop spinning out of control in fits of anxiety. Just listen to and for God. Not everything depends upon you! If we were to stop, the world will not stop, the sun will not fall out of the sky and our jobs will not collapse in a heap around us! In fact, we may leave these spirit breaks less anxious and more peace-filled, less lonely and more joyful, and less empty and more satisfied. Alejandra closed her Lenten devotional by saying, "Once you have tasted and experienced those moments of complete communion and connection with the Spirit of God you want to go back to them over and over again. In fact, my very ambitious and ultimate goal is to make this communion with the Holy Spirit a constant and permanent exercise and to be always aware and conscious of the power of God's presence in my daily life . . . I wish the same for all of you."

Well said, Alejandra. That is my wish and my intention for each of you (and for myself) as well.

Blessings and Love,

Mitch

UKirk

UKirk is endeavoring to provide a venue for First Presbyterian Church and United Presbyterian Church to reach out to students.

Small Groups: We have groups meeting on Tuesday and Fridays for lunch. If you are interested in mentoring or connecting with students on a semi-regular basis and could do another time, let us know!

Wright on Wednesdays: We meet regularly for a mid-week gathering at Wright. An easy way to contribute is by donating any baked goods, snacks, or drinks!

POV North Central Gathering

On Wednesday, February 26, 2014, Spencer Presbyterian Church hosted the quarterly Presbytery of Ohio Valley North Central Regional Gathering. UPC was represented by six attendees: Reverend Mitch Coggin, Reverend Sarah Cochran, Reverend Bob Lorimer, Sue Lorimer, Allen Pease and Clerk Don Root. The Reverend Brad Napier of Brownsburg Presbyterian Church called the gathering to order and introduced the Reverend Mihee Kim-Kort.

Reverend Kim-Kort presented an overview and status report on the Ukirk Campus Ministry at Indiana University. The United Presbyterian and First Presbyterian congregations of Bloomington support her as the director of Ukirk at IU. Her presentation was well received and many questions from the floor were expertly answered.

Worship followed with hymn singing and the Reverend Wes Kendall of Greencastle Presbyterian Church presenting an interesting and inspiring sermon titled: Beyond the Shadows & the Flurry. A lunch of home-made lasagna and desserts prepared by the people of Spencer Presbyterian was served. The gathering was concluded by a speak out session which included announcements of activities and achievements of the people and congregations of the POV's North Central Region. This included noting the publication of Reverend Lorimer's book, The Apocalypse to John the Apostle, by Tate Publishing, announcement of the POV's October trip to the Holy Land hosted by Reverend Napier and recognition of the missionary work of Spencer Presbyterian's Marietta Macy at Dar al-Kalima School in Bethlehem. Those from UPC who attended all agreed that it was a well spent day of fellowship, education and inspiration.

How to Get Involved

Sunday Morning

Anytime

Volunteering with Sunday School

Do you love children? Are you excited about crafts? The Sunday School teachers would love to have you assist them. Please contact Karen Like KLike@earthlink.net for more information!

Fellowship Hour

Fellowship Hour is a time to share with one another over coffee and snacks. Everyone is invited to attend. It is held immediately following the Sunday worship service. Fellowship hours can be hosted by groups, families, or individuals. If you feel led to serve in this way, a signup sheet is in the fellowship hall.

Guest Performers

Throughout the year we have many special guest performances to enhance our worship experience. If you have a musical talent and are interested in sharing it with the congregation, please contact Jeeyoon Kim!

Video and Sound Systems

If you are interested in learning how to operate the sound system or help in taping the weekly worship sessions please contact Don Root at rootd@msn.com.

Offering

Would you like to help in counting the offertory?: You do not need to sign up for a yearly commitment. Or if you are interested in collecting the offertory please let Bob Lorimer at lorimer9@gmail.com know.

Utilize Scrip

When Scrip cards are purchased UPC receives a percentage from the merchant. The Scrip table will only be set up on the last Sunday of the month to accept order forms and payments. The purchased cards will be available to be picked up the following Sunday!

Little Red Wagon

The little red wagon is waiting to be filled with canned goods and hygiene products for Monroe County United Ministries. For more information ask one of our Deacons..

UKirk

UKirk is in need of assistance with transportation, food donations, speakers, and mentors. If you are interested, please contact Elaine at NPlane01@aol.com

Friendly Visitors

Do you like socializing at Fellowship Hour? Our congregation has many individuals that would love to have someone come visit them and share the good news with them. Some are homebound, and others are in nursing homes. Please contact the church at Upcbloomington@gmail.com. if you are interested in spreading cheer with a visit..

What Women Auto Know —My Sisters Closet

If you've paid attention to the news over the past two years, you know that a number of women have had scary encounters on the road with questionable pull-overs. There also seems to be a continuing trend in frauds upon women regarding the maintenance and repair of their vehicles.

"What Women Auto Know" sponsored by My Sister's Closet, is a female empowerment event to inform women about their rights on the road and about their vehicle. Subjects to be covered include: who can pull them over, Do It Yourself car repairs, how to talk to a mechanic and much more. It will be happening on Thursday April 10th from 6:30-9:30pm at the Neil-Marshall Black Cultural Center. Tickets are $20 in advance and $25 day of the event. IU student tickets are $15 in advance and $20 day of the event. Tickets may be purchased online at www.SistersCloset.org or in person at the My Sister's Closet Boutique, 404 W. 2nd Street. A silent auction and heavy hors d'oeuvres will also be featured during the event. All women are encouraged to attend so they can feel empowered, safe and in control when it comes to their vehicle.

My Sister's Closet is a 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization established to provide free work force attire and Success Institute training to low-income and at-risk women pursuing employment. Their Bargain Boutique on West Second St. is filled with new and gently used quality clothing available for purchase to the public. The clothing is offered free to at risk women seeking employment through a voucher system implemented by My Sister's Closet and 47 Monroe County organizations.

Financial Report

We didn't do well financially in February. We took in a total of $10,121.36 for the month and our expenses were $15,533.92, giving us a negative cash flow of $5,412.56 for February and a positive cash flow of $4,265.60 for the year-to-date.

| INCOME  |           |         |         |           | EXPENSES  | GAIN/LOSS |
|---------|-----------|---------|---------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
|         | OFFERING  | MISSION | FUND R. | TOTAL     |           |           |
| FEB.    | 9,294.50  | 816.86  | 10.00   | 10,121.36 | 15,533.92 | -5412.56  |

Deacons Offering

The Deacons Offering Envelope is presented in the Sunday bulletin on the first Sunday of each month. The offering supports a unique ministry. The generosity collected is used to minister to those in need who are associated with our fellowship. The Deacons also reach out to the community and, on special occasion, to charitable concerns within our denomination. All Deacons' work is confidential. For details, see any Deacon. A list of the Deacons are on the back of each Sunday Bulletin. But remember, you don't only have to donate to this ministry the first Sunday of every month.

The Passing of a Bloomington Saint

The following announcement from the Presbytery of Ohio Valley brought us the sad news:

*Glory to you, O God, for you have woven radiant garments for the resurrection.
Blessings to you, O Christ, for you were clothed with them at your rising.
Praise to you, O Holy Spirit, for you keep them in love for all the saints.*

The Rev. Lavere Christian "Rudy" Rudolph, age 92, died Saturday March 8, 2014, at Meadowood Health Pavilion. Born December 24, 1921, in Dubois County, he was the son of Joseph F. and Rose (Stradtner) Rudolph.

He served in the United States Air Force (formerly Army Air Corps) from 1940 to 1946. Following the service he earned academic degrees from DePauw University, from Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, from Indiana University, and from Yale University. He taught church history at Louisville Seminary for fifteen years. Then he served for sixteen years on the professional staff of Lilly Library of Indiana University, Bloomington. In the course of that service, seven of his books were published, the last being "Hoosier Faiths: a History of Indiana's Churches and Religious Groups."

He was ordained to the Presbyterian ministry in 1950. Concurrent with his academic work, he provided periods of pastoral service for churches at Bridgeport, CT, at Louisville, KY, and at Indiana churches in Russellville, Scottsburg, Waveland, New Albany, Dale, Jeffersonville, Terre Haute, Kingston, Springhill, Brazil, and Greencastle. He was a member of the Presbytery of Ohio Valley.

Survivors include his wife, Elizabeth Vance Rudolph; his sister-in-law, Lucille Rudolph; two nieces, Sharon Rudolph Held (David) and Nancy Kaible Anderson (David); and two nephews, James L. Rudolph (Helen) and Edward T. Rudolph (Sheila). Numerous grand nieces, nephews, and cousins also survive.

He was preceded in death by his parents; by his late wife, Ellen Todrank Rudolph; his brother, Gwen P. Rudolph; by his sister, Joyce Rudolph Kaible; and by two nephews.

. . . Memorial contributions may be made to First Presbyterian Church or to IU Health Hospice.

In life and in death, and in all the circumstances of life, we belong to God.

And we belong to each other.

Thanks be to God for these blessed connections.

Peace and all good,

The Rev'd. Susan C. McGhee, Executive Presbyter, The Presbytery of Ohio Valley

Reverend Rudolph was known to many in our congregation. He was a long-time friend and frequent visitor of our church as well as a guest minister on several occasions, last preaching from the UPC pulpit less than three years ago. He was an excellent source for us on the history of Hoosier and Presbyterian churches. His "Hoosier Faiths: a History of Indiana's Churches and Religious Groups," one of seven books he authored, was a source cited in UPC's 175th anniversary celebration in 2008. A service of witness to the resurrection was held March 14, 2014, at First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Andrew Kort and the Reverend Rachel Pederson officiating.

Liturgists Needed: The Worship Committee is continuing to organize liturgists for each worship service in 2014, many have signed up but, more volunteers are needed. If you are interested in being a liturgist for a Sunday service, please contact upcbloomington@gmail.com .

Invitation to Passover Seder

Unique and meaningful best describes the experience of witnessing and participating in a Passover Seder. Passover is a festival of freedom. It commemorates the Israelites' Exodus from Egypt, and their transition from slavery to freedom. The main ritual of Passover is the Seder, which occurs on the first night (or, outside of Israel, the first two nights) of the holiday--a festive meal that involves the re-telling of the Exodus through stories and song and the consumption of ritual foods, including matzah and maror. The most salient Passover practice is a set of intense changes to the usual dietary cycle, including the absence of foods with leaven. The ecstatic cycle of psalms called Hallel is recited during the Seder. Matzah, or unleavened bread, is the main food of Passover. There are many traditional, popular foods, from haroset (a mixture of apples, nuts, wine, and cinnamon) to matzo ball soup--and the absence of leavening calls upon a cook to employ culinary creativity.

The congregation of Temple Shir Tikvah will host the annual community Passover Seder on Monday, April 14th at 6:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. Friends and members of UPC are warmly invited to attend. This will be a full and meaningful Seder. A minimum donation of $10 for the meal is asked from members of Shir Tikvah and UPC, and $15 from non-members. Children 10 and under are free. If you'd like to bring additional food or wine, please make sure it's kosher for Passover. All fruits and vegetables are kosher for Passover. To reserve, please email lyndarusso@aol.com. Rabbi Steve Ballaban will return to lead the Seder.

Celebrate Pi with Pie

. Lou Malcomb and Allen Pease organized the event and invited friends and members to bring pies to Fellowship Hour to celebrate Pi with Pie! It was noted that last year many of us went as a group to see the movie The Life of Pi. We had such a wonderful—and thought provoking—time on that day; recalling that great outing gave us another reason to . . . celebrate Pi with Pie!

We had a wonderful time! It was certainly a grand buffet of pies! Colleen Swanson brought a beautiful, made from scratch lemon meringue pie and Lamis Turk came with two home-made, savory quiche pies. Linda Coggin brought a home-made butterscotch pie created from a prized family recipe and Virginia McCartney brought her amazing home-made strawberry pie. Allen Pease made two refrigerator pies—one lemon and one lime. Dolores Toby brought an authentic, made from scratch, key lime pie created with the juice of key limes from their own tree which grew on their former Florida property. Lou Malcomb teamed with Sami Haddad to make a 100% vegan pie in addition to the unusual cheeseburger pie and vegetable pie she created. Many others brought pies including Souheil & Alejandra Haddad, Sue Lorimer, Billy & Mary Lou Rhoades and Nancy Truelove. It was a wonderful Sunday afternoon of good food and exceptional Christian fellowship.

Flowers:

Flowers may be placed to honor the memory of a loved one or to mark special occasions such as anniversaries, births, birthdays, promotions, engagements, weddings, family reunions, etc. The cost is only $25 including delivery. The Sign-Up Sheet is posted on the bulletin board opposite the church office. Simply sign-up and the Worship Committee orders the floral arrangement, confirms delivery and makes sure it's noted in the Sunday Bulletin for that worship service. You may also choose to do your own ordering and selecting of flowers—just note this on the signup sheet.
