

Good Friday

April 7, 2023 United Presbyterian Church Worship Guide
1701 E. Second Street Bloomington, Indiana 47401

Welcome

The Reverend David Rosen

Tenebrae is Latin for shadows. Tonight, through Scripture and music, we will recreate the emotional aspects of the Passion Story. The candlelight service becomes progressively darker as the service unfolds until the sanctuary is in total darkness.

Prelude Intermezzo in Eb Minor, Op. 118 No. 6 –J. Brahms Benjamin Watkins, piano

Call to Worship

Deacon Souheil Haddad, liturgist

Leader Like straying sheep we turned on our own way,

People and Christ carried the sin of us all.

Leader We are witnesses to his death upon the cross;

People Yet out of the darkness we shall see light.

*Hymn for Preparation When I Survey the Wondrous Cross #101

The Passion of Jesus Christ

The readings given are by James H. Charlesworth.

Translated from John 18:1 thru 19:42

The Tenebrae Participants:

Reverend David Rosen Deacon Souheil Haddad

Dismissal

Go in Peace. May Jesus Christ, who became obedient unto death, even death on a cross, keep you and strengthen you this night and forever. Amen.

Go Forth in Silence
