I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Roachdale Presbyterian Church, pastored by Rev. David Bower, is a small rural church in central Indiana. The town’s population is approximately 800. The Presbyterian Church was organized November 22, 1890 in Parkersburg, IN. There were 25 original members and 16 of those were women. The town of Roachdale was only 12 years old when the little white church was moved there. The church was remodeled and made larger in 1927 and the outward appearance remains the same.

47th Annual Bloomfield First Presbyterian Women's Association's Tasting Luncheon

Friday, June 27th.

Sue Lorimer has attended every one of the first 46.

Let's Help Sue Rack Up #47!

Road Trip to Bloomfield!

Attendees get a tablespoon of each of twelve dishes selected and prepared by the Women's Association. And it adds up to a hearty lunch.

Sue's husband, the late Reverend Robert Lorimer, served First Presbyterian for many years as pastor. Just over 47 years ago, Sue was among the women who founded the fundraiser which is now an annual tradition in Bloomfield.

It's a great time lunching, fellowshiping and meeting Sue's friends.

➤ Susan Isenogle, Bloomfield First Presbyterians' secretary and longtime friend of Sue at last year's Tasting Luncheon.
